

Marketing messages for Approved Training Partners – Auditing Courses

Who is IRCA?

The International Register of Certificated Auditors (IRCA) is the leading professional body for management system auditors, offering a globally recognised business qualification. We represent 10,000 registered auditors in 150 countries and every year, around 60 000 delegates attend an IRCA approved training course.

Why should I go on an IRCA certified training course as opposed and non-IRCA auditing course?

The IRCA certified courses delivered by [Training provider name]

- are regularly reviewed by independent learning specialists to maintain the standard of training
- have a maximum class size to maximise participation and optimise learning
- are taught by independently assessed tutors to guarantee the quality of tuition
- follow a recognised learning style that encourages participation and reinforces learning
- only use material (hand outs, slides, workshops, groups sessions etc.) that have been proven to add value
- are recognised by employers globally, as providing employees with the highest standard of tuition
- shows our dedication to maintain the highest standards of learning as we have voluntarily chosen this monitoring to ensure our courses deliver a quality, delegate-focused learning experience
- are an easy way to differentiate us from other non- certified training providers
- are the entry route for registration with the International Register of Certificated Auditors (IRCA), the professional body for management system auditors.

What is an IRCA registered auditor?

With so much riding on the outcome of an audit, the competence of management systems auditor is vital and attending a training course is just the first stage in become a fully competent auditor.

IRCA registered auditors are auditors who have:

- Attended an IRCA certified training course and met IRCA's standard of technical experience, work experience and audit experience
- committed to and undertake on-going professional development to keep up to date with developments in standards, auditing methodology, industry and regulatory requirements
- committed to working IRCA's code of conduct.

Why should I become IRCA registered?

- IRCA registration is a valuable asset in today's competitive world. With so many auditors around the world, IRCA registration is an easy way to help you stand out from the crowd. IRCA registration will allow you to:
 - easily differentiate yourself from less qualified auditors
 - show you have business expertise in addition to auditing expertise
 - list yourself on the IRCA register, which is the first stop for organisations looking for qualified auditors
 - connect to a network of 10 000 contacts
 - work internationally with a globally recognised qualification
 - support your career development through your commitment to ethics and CPD.

How do I join IRCA?

If you are interested in becoming an IRCA registered auditor, please visit the IRCA website at www.quality.org to find out more.

Can I get IRCA recognition for passing the IRCA certified course?

If you do not wish to join at present but are interesting in gaining recognition for your achievements so far, you can record your certificate with IRCA. Recording your certificate is free and the benefits include:

- access the latest news in IRCA's newsletter – Inform
- network with fellow auditors in IRCA's private LinkedIn group
- keep your skills up-to-date with exclusive access to IRCA's reports, research and analysis
- get advance notice of ISO standard changes and how they impact auditors
- get notified of discounts on IRCA fees
- obtain official recognition from IRCA.

To record your certificate, visit IRCA at – www.quality.org/record-your-certificate